

Dog Park Update

December 3, 2007

Thanks to all who attended our Dog Park Interest Meeting on November 29th. Despite poor weather there was a strong showing of support with over 50 people in attendance. We received many good ideas form of comment cards that were distributed during the meeting and from conversations with many of the attendees.

During the meeting we announced that we are forming a Dog Park Exploratory Committee to assist us in the planning process as we move forward. Please note only those who are City of Billings' residents will be considered for a position on the committee, but we welcome support from anyone within or outside the City.

For more information, go to www.prpl.info or call Mark Jarvis, Park Planner, at 657-8367.
